

Exhibit C.3.b.

Selection, evaluation, advancement, and advisement of students.

Describe the faculty's involvement and cite the specific source/documentation of documentation.

Admission Criteria is set for graduate students by the Graduate Nursing Committee and approved by the Nursing Faculty Organization. Selection of student applicants is by the Graduate Nursing Committee. All student applications are reviewed by Graduate Nursing Committee members as well as graduate faculty who are teaching in the specific tracks for which students are applying. Evidence of this can be found in Graduate Nursing Committee Minutes and in reports to NFO at the monthly meetings. All applicants are interviewed either in person on the campus or using WebEx.

Examples of minutes, and interview schedules are provided in this Exhibit.
